SCHEDULE 2

New Issues

Pursuant to the U.S. Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA) Rule 5130 (the New Issues Rule) (formerly NASD Conduct Rule 2790), Restricted Persons are limited in their ability to purchase or otherwise participate in the profits associated with new issues, i.e., initial public offerings of equity securities. Restricted Persons include broker/dealers, certain persons associated with or related to broker/dealers, portfolio managers (including managers of hedge funds), and certain other persons. The New Issues Rule, however, provides several limited exemptions from this prohibition. Additionally, FINRA Rule 5131 prohibits, among other things, a FINRA member who provides investment banking services from allocating any new issues of equity securities to accounts of executive officers and/or directors, and materially supported persons thereof, of certain public or private companies (each such person, a Restricted Investor) that have an investment banking relationship with such FINRA member or where such FINRA member expects to establish an investment banking relationship with such public or private company.

While the Subscriber acknowledges that the Segregated Portfolio may not actually invest in new issues and is under no obligation to do so, the Subscriber (i) is required to make the appropriate certification below; (ii) agrees to furnish whatever information or documentation the Fund, on behalf of the Segregated Portfolio, may require in order to demonstrate to the Fund's satisfaction that the beneficial owner of the Participating Shares either qualifies for one of the available exemptions from the New Issues Rule's prohibition or is otherwise not a Restricted Person, and either qualifies for one of the available exemptions in FINRA Rule 5131(b) or is otherwise not a Restricted Investor; and (iii) agrees to promptly notify the Fund and the Administrator if it becomes restricted from participating in new issues. To the extent the Subscriber is not familiar with the new issues rules, the Subscriber should discuss his, her or its status with its legal or other advisors.

The Subscriber understands that the Fund, the Administrator will be relying on the accuracy and completeness of the statements made and information provided in this Schedule and represents and warrants that such statements and information may be relied upon by the Fund, its advisors, its broker/dealers and any entities or managers with which the Fund invests, in complying with the New Issues Rule and FINRA Rule 5131(b).
